

Dear Commissioners:

Relaxing ownership regulations has already reduced diversity and increased the power of a few corporations. The limits should not be eased further. The former restrictions should be reinstated.

Thank you for your consideration.